Join us live and discover Hayley Stathis' roadmap used by over 3000 wellness experts.

Are you a practitioner tired of cramming everything into short consults, burning out with back-to-back appointments, and still feeling like you've hit an income ceiling?

Imagine making one powerful shift in your business model that not only helps you deliver better outcomes for your clients but also allows you to earn more while working fewer hours.

In this high-impact training, Hayley Stathis, clinical nutritionist, mentor, and creator of a proven practitioner business roadmap, will guide you step-by-step through the process of designing and launching your first (or next) scalable One-to Many offer.

Whether it's a program, course, membership, or hybrid model, you'll walk away with a clear, actionable blueprint to move from consults to consistent income, without overwhelm.
